The Brasted Society

Formed in 2017 by several villagers to ensure Brasted's history is protected and not lost. A village archive has been brought together and is currently under the care of members of the Brasted Society. This is being added to and carefully preserved for future generations. The Brasted Society are working with others in the village to create a Brasted Heritage Centre and compiling a book of old postcard images and photographs of Brasted. The Society is interested in scenes, special occasions and/or events from late 1800's to late 1950's. For further information contact Karina Jackson (01959 565245) or Roger Rogowski (01959 561345). The Brasted Society also has a Facebook Page.

Brasted Memories

Local author Karina Jackson has compiled a book on village life in the recent past by interviewing long term village residents. The book is priced at £10 and is available directly from Karina 01959 565245 (all proceeds, after costs, will go towards purchasing Brasted related information and items for the archive).

St. Martin's Heritage Trust

Formed in 2018 with the aim of reinforcing the Church's position at the heart of the village and to ensure that it is open and welcoming to everyone. The Trust currently consists of a mixture of Church members and village residents. The Trust offers a warm welcome to anyone who would like to join them to help add to the vibrancy of the village social life and enhance the sense of community.
